Our garments are meticulously crafted using only the finest linen fabrics, and manufactured with care in Ireland and Lithuania. Our commitment to quality is unparalleled, as evidenced by the attention to detail we give to every aspect of production, from French seams to hand work. Each piece is infused with a passion for excellence that is reflected in its exceptional quality.

Introducing Flower Power, a captivating collection inspired by the exquisite beauty of various flowers. From the resplendent peonies in full bloom to the allure of decaying blossoms, this collection embarks on a poetic journey through the world of flowers. Each design is meticulously handcrafted, seamlessly incorporating the essence of blooming petals into everyday life, adding a touch of elegance and charm.

We cordially invite our esteemed community to rediscover the joy of living beautifully once more, and to embrace the appreciation for exceptional craftsmanship and high-quality materials evident in every garment. With UPA, wearing our collection becomes a profound statement—a testament not only to one's impeccable sense of style and artistic expression, but also a proclamation of one's beliefs in environmental sustainability, human rights, and all that truly matters in our world. Our collection serves as an embodiment of conscious consumerism, making a powerful statement with each UPA garment adorned. By wearing UPA, children become ambassadors of change, expressing their unique perspectives on the world. We invite you, esteemed kids fashion buyers, to explore this remarkable collection that seamlessly blends style, artistry, and purpose.
